Threadworks 2016 FLASHBACK!

Date and Time: Thursday, February 1 11:00 am - 4:00 pm

Threadworks 2016 FLASHBACK is a juried exhibition of stitched textile art, sponsored by the Wellington County Museum and Archives.

When Threadworks began in 1987, stitched textile art was not commonly seen in galleries. The goal of the Wellington County Museum staff was to give fibre artists an opportunity to offer their work to a jury, to see it hung and displayed in a large space and then to offer the exhibit to galleries at a distance.

The Threadworks theme for the current exhibit is FLASHBACK. Just what does that word bring to your imagination? How far back does it take you...to your youth, the time of your grandparents, pre-history or even farther?

The FLASHBACK Grand Prize Winner was "Storm Windows" by Maggie Vanderweit from Fergus.

Long before double-paned glass, winter's advent meant that our storm windows needed to be put on. My father adeptly climbed ladders carrying heavy, awkward glass frames, and then sealed the cracks with putty. It was another of his many loving gestures to keep us snug and warm. ~ Artist Statement

The exhibit will be on display at the Scugog Shores Heritage Centre & Archives November 9, 2017 - February 25, 2018. The Heritage Centre is open Tuesday - Sunday from 11:00 am - 4:00 pm. Regular admission applies.

Samantha Martin & Delta Sugar - Greenbank Concert

Date and Time: Saturday, February 10 8:00 pm - 11:30 pm

Address: GREENBANK

"Samantha Martin is an artist of extraordinary power, gravitas and deep-seated emotion. On first listen, one is immediately struck by the awesome presence and sheer magnitude of her other worldly voice. Cigarette-ravaged and whiskey-soaked in the extreme, Martin's pipes are capable of conveying an infinite range of emotions. Samantha Martin & Delta Sugar released the debut album, "Send the Nightingale" to glowing reviews by fans and critics alike. They were nominated for four Maple Blues Awards in 2016." Markham Jazz Festival, 2016

Greenbank Hall, Greenbank (Hwy 12, 30 mins N of Whitby)

Tickets - $25 available at:

Blue Heron Books, 62 Brock St West, in Uxbridge, 905-852-4282

P O E Design, 146 Queen St, in Port Perry, 905-985-0060

Long before double-paned glass, winter's advent meant that our storm windows needed to be put on. My father adeptly climbed ladders carrying heavy, awkward glass frames, and then sealed the cracks with putty. It was another of his many loving gestures to keep us snug and warm. ~ Artist Statement

The exhibit will be on display at the Scugog Shores Heritage Centre & Archives November 9, 2017 - February 25, 2018. The Heritage Centre is open Tuesday - Sunday from 11:00 am - 4:00 pm. Regular admission applies.

Threadworks 2016 FLASHBACK!

Date and Time: Tuesday, February 20 11:00 am - 4:00 pm

Threadworks 2016 FLASHBACK is a juried exhibition of stitched textile art, sponsored by the Wellington County Museum and Archives.

When Threadworks began in 1987, stitched textile art was not commonly seen in galleries. The goal of the Wellington County Museum staff was to give fibre artists an opportunity to offer their work to a jury, to see it hung and displayed in a large space and then to offer the exhibit to galleries at a distance.

The Threadworks theme for the current exhibit is FLASHBACK. Just what does that word bring to your imagination? How far back does it take you...to your youth, the time of your grandparents, pre-history or even farther?

The FLASHBACK Grand Prize Winner was “Storm Windows” by Maggie Vanderweit from Fergus.

Sunday Speaker Series: The Immigrant Letters of Frances Stewart with Jodi Aoki

Date and Time: Sunday, February 25 1:00 pm - 3:00 pm

Jodi Aoki is editor of Revisiting “Our Forest Home”: The Immigrant Letters of Frances Stewart (Dundurn, 2011). Ms. Aoki is an archivist at Trent University in Peterborough, Ontario with a master’s degree in Canadian Studies and Indigenous Studies. Jodi first became interested in the Upper Canadian Irish immigrant Frances Stewart while working with Stewart’s letters in the University Archives; she later made Stewart and the letters a focus of study. Jodi’s paper is about Frances Stewart and her immigrant life in the Peterborough region. Settling initially in Cobourg, Ontario in 1822, Frances and her husband, Tom, and their three daughters moved the following year to Douro Township, not far from the present-day site of Trent University. All talks take place at the Scugog Shores Heritage Centre & Archives. Admission is $10/person.

For more information please contact Shannon at museum@scugog.ca or 905-985-8698 x 103.
