Murder Mystery Night - 'Carry-On Diagnosis Murder'

Date and Time: Friday, September 7 7:30 pm - 10:30 pm

This is an interactive night of intrigue! 'Carry-On Diagnosis Murder' has been written to celebrate the re-opening Lakeridge Health Port Perry!

The year is 1967, The story revolves around a small hospital in financial trouble. Cardiologist Dr. Hartley Strangelove and Matron Edna Catherine Graves, work hard to keep the doors open. Obstetrician Dr. Pryde has been causing many problems for the hospital. He is wasting supplies and has a terrible bedside manner.. He has had arguments with many staff including Rex the pharmacist, Luke the lab tech and Dr. Max the psychiatrist. When Dr. Pryde is found dead in the Cardiology department it at first looks like an unfortunate accident. However on closer examination things don't look so cut and dry!

You are the detective. Explore the Museum Village, question the suspects, search for clues and solve the crime. Tickets are $20 and must be purchased in advance. Tickets sell out every year so get yours early to avoid disappointment. Doors open at 7:00 pm. The event starts at 7:30 pm. Email museum@scugog.ca or call 905-985-8698 x 103 for tickets.

Culture Days - Melodies at the Museum!

Date and Time: Saturday, September 29 10:00 am - 4:00 pm

Address: 16210 Island Road, Port Perry, ON

Culture Days celebrates its 9th year with the theme OnBeat. Presented in partnership with Sun Life Financial, Culture Days is both a national event and the overarching theme for this annual celebration of arts and culture. The theme embraces rhythm as a universal cultural experience and drumming as the most accessible art form. OnBeat events will bring public spaces to life as Canadians collectively get in the groove the last weekend of September.

The Scugog Shores Museum Village will be alive with the sound of music to celebrate Culture Days! Join us for Melodies at the Museum, September 29th & 30th from 10 am – 4 pm to explore the Village with a musical touch. Meander through heritage buildings that show what daily life was like in Scugog from the mid to late 1800s and explore associated musical traditions. Learn about First Nations music, tunes of the early settlers, melodies during the Victorian age, and how music played a role in education and religion in early Canada.

In addition, join us Sunday September 30 at 1:00 pm in the Museum Head Church for a special presentation by author David McPherson as he discusses his new book The Legendary Horseshoe Tavern: A Complete History.

Like the Queen Street strip that has been its home for seven decades, the Horseshoe Tavern continues to evolve. It remains as relevant today as it did when Jack Starr founded the country music club on the site of a former blacksmith shop. From country and rockabilly to rock 'n' roll, punk, alt/country, and back to roots music, the venerable live music venue has evolved with the times and trends — always keeping pace with the music.

Over its long history, the Horseshoe has seen a flood of talent pass through. From Willie Nelson to Loretta Lynn, Stompin' Tom Connors to The Band, and Bryan Adams to the Tragically Hip, the Horseshoe has attracted premier acts from all eras of music. In The Legendary Horseshoe Tavern, David McPherson captures the turbulent life of the bar, and of Canadian rock.

DAVID MCPHERSON BIO

Ever since attending his first rock concert in 1989 (The Who) and buying his first LP (Freeze Frame by The J. Geils Band), music has become "the elixir of his life." With more than 18,000 songs on his iPod, and an ever-growing vintage vinyl collection, it's a joy for him to discover new music; he loves sharing these discoveries with his wife and two children. David watched his first show [The Old 97s] at the Horseshoe Tavern more than twenty years ago; immediately he was hooked. A regular contributor to Words + Music, Hamilton Magazine, and No Depression, over the years his writing on music has also appeared in Paste, American Songwriter, Bluegrass Unlimited, Exclaim! and Canadian Musician. As president and chief creative officer of McPherson Communications, David helps clients get the words right. He lives in Waterloo, Ontario.

Admission to all activities on Culture Days weekend at the Scugog Shores Museum Village is free. Donations are appreciated and will help the museum with future programming. The Scugog Shores Museum Village is located at 16210 Island Road, Port Perry.
