Threadworks 2016 FLASHBACK!

Date and Time: Friday, December 1 11:00 am - 4:00 pm

Threadworks 2016 FLASHBACK is a juried exhibition of stitched textile art, sponsored by the Wellington County Museum and Archives.

When Threadworks began in 1987, stitched textile art was not commonly seen in galleries. The goal of the Wellington County Museum staff was to give fibre artists an opportunity to offer their work to a jury, to see it hung and displayed in a large space and then to offer the exhibit to galleries at a distance.

The Threadworks theme for the current exhibit is FLASHBACK. Just what does that word bring to your imagination? How far back does it take you...to your youth, the time of your grandparents, pre-history or even farther?

The FLASHBACK Grand Prize Winner was "Storm Windows" by Maggie Vanderweit from Fergus.

Long before double-paned glass, winter's advent meant that our storm windows needed to be put on. My father adeptly climbed ladders carrying heavy, awkward glass frames, and then sealed the cracks with putty. It was another of his many loving gestures to keep us snug and warm. ~ Artist Statement

The exhibit will be on display at the Scugog Shores Heritage Centre & Archives November 9, 2017 - February 25, 2018. The Heritage Centre is open Tuesday - Sunday from 11:00 am - 4:00 pm. Regular admission applies.

Beauty & The Beast the Musical Pantomime!

Date and Time: Friday, December 1 7:30 pm - 9:45 pm

Address: 302 Queen Street, Port Perry

Beauty logo

Just in time to kick off the holiday season -- this panto of Beauty and The Beast is wonderful, funny entertainment for all ages! Children and adults will enjoy the tongue-in-cheek humour and colourful story!

Laughter, music, and a beloved but fractured -- *very fractured* -- fairy tale! Feisty Belle and the Beast are at the centre of the story but this is no Disney tale as they are joined by a cast of zany characters who proceed to attempt to take over the story with hilarious results: a pair of fighting fairies, a wise-cracking onion-seller and the 'odd little boy' whose sole purpose it seems is to irritate him, an outrageously colourful dame, an evil mayoress and her dumpy brother who has his eyes set on Belle, talking broom and dustpan, dancing cutlery and those delightfully naughty imps.

The production features well-known performing faces for Durham region audiences: Kathy Knight, David Hooke, Liz Auston, Don Coverley and stars new-comers Skylar McQueen as a bookishly charming Belle and Don Birk as the Beast/Prince. The show has 21 cast members in all, made up of men, women and children.

Directed by Dave Ellis with Musical Direction by Alissa Smith and Produced/Choreographed by Liz Auston.

Performances

Evenings November 24, 25, 30, December 1 at 7:30 p.m.

The Threadworks theme for the current exhibit is FLASHBACK. Just what does that word bring to your imagination? How far back does it take you...to your youth, the time of your grandparents, pre-history or even farther?

The FLASHBACK Grand Prize Winner was "Storm Windows" by Maggie Vanderweit from Fergus.

Long before double-paned glass, winter's advent meant that our storm windows needed to be put on. My father adeptly climbed ladders carrying heavy, awkward glass frames, and then sealed the cracks with putty. It was another of his many loving gestures to keep us snug and warm. ~ Artist Statement

Threadworks 2016 FLASHBACK!

Date and Time: Saturday, December 30 11:00 am - 4:00 pm

Threadworks 2016 FLASHBACK is a juried exhibition of stitched textile art, sponsored by the Wellington County Museum and Archives.

When Threadworks began in 1987, stitched textile art was not commonly seen in galleries. The goal of the Wellington County Museum staff was to give fibre artists an opportunity to offer their work to a jury, to see it hung and displayed in a large space and then to offer the exhibit to galleries at a distance.

The Threadworks theme for the current exhibit is FLASHBACK. Just what does that word bring to your imagination? How far back does it take you...to your youth, the time of your grandparents, pre-history or even farther?

The FLASHBACK Grand Prize Winner was “Storm Windows” by Maggie Vanderweit from Fergus.

Long before double-paned glass, winter's advent meant that our storm windows needed to be put on. My father adeptly climbed ladders carrying heavy, awkward glass frames, and then sealed the cracks with putty. It was another of his many loving gestures to keep us snug and warm. ~ Artist Statement

The exhibit will be on display at the Scugog Shores Heritage Centre & Archives November 9, 2017 - February 25, 2018. The Heritage Centre is open Tuesday - Sunday from 11:00 am - 4:00 pm. Regular admission applies.
