Christmas Bird Count

Date and Time: Thursday, December 27 12:00 am - 12:00 am

Tweet tweet - Its Christmas Bird Count Time!

This is when bird lovers across the Americas and beyond get out and count their feathered friends. Its all part of the National Audubon's annual Christmas citizen science survey of birds. Now in its one hundred and nineteenth year! You can participate in a number of ways. As a feeder watcher if your property is in a Bird Count circle you count during the day for as many hours as you can. In the field in teams we drive, and/or we walk specific zones in the circle for a full day of bird watching. At night the owl listeners visit their favourite spots to count the hoots . There is usually a pot luck supper or dining rendezvous involved that evening to share stories and count up the birds. Sign up soon!

Thursday December 27th Uxbridge Christmas Bird Count includes areas in Scugog too!
